HE WENT OUT, NOT KNOWING

HEBREWS 11:8-10 & GENESIS 12:1-9

MICHAEL ROBINSON, AUBURNDALE CAMPUS PASTOR
MARCH 1, 2026

1. The Call of Faith

- God called Abram to go without details.
- Abram obeyed immediately — “So Abram went.”
- Faith is obeying even when we don’t understand.

2. The Character of Faith

- Abram was not chosen because of qualifications.
- He trusted God despite age, barrenness, and uncertainty.
- Everywhere he went, he built altars and worshiped.

3. The Promise of Faith

- God promised a nation, a name, and a blessing.
- The ultimate fulfillment: blessing to all nations through Christ.
- Abram looked beyond Canaan to “the city with foundations.”

Faith lives now in light of eternity. Temporary tents → Eternal city.

Response:

- Will you trust God’s character over visible circumstances?
- Will you go — even when you don’t know?
